DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

The drawings are objected to as failing to comply with 37 CFR 1.84(p)(4) because reference character "R" has been used to designate both a tool feature in Figure 1 and workpiece features in Figures 2 and 4. Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1-13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

All of the claims contain parenthetical limitations which cause the scope of the claims to be indefinite.

Art Unit: 3742

Claim 1, line 5, "chignon" is not a clear work piece description. A definition defines chignon as pertaining to a personal hair feature. Further description is required.

Claim 1, line 5, "in the form of a slip ring" is not a clear description. Further description is required.

Claim 1, lines 8 and 11, "flanging tool" and "flanging members" are not clear descriptions of the tool. Further description is required.

Claim 2, line 2, "chignon" is not a clear work piece description.

Claim 8-10 describe a "slip ring", but it is not clear whether or not it is the same slip ring that was earlier described in claim 1.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

Claims 1-13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Applicant's Admitted Prior Art (AAPA) in view of USPN 6,490,779 to Tokizawa et al in view of USPN 3,584,809 to Ogden, Sr.

AAPA describes (Specification, State of the Technology [0002]-[0004]) well known stator winding welding.

Tokizawa et al describe stator winding welding with shaped clamping means.

Ogden, Sr. describes well known holding means in which a rotating cam surface is used to clamp plural coils together.

The substitution of a rotating cam shape in place of the shaped clamping means described by Tokizawa et al would have been obvious at the time applicant's invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art because the cam provides positive engagement in a limited area.

Claims 11 and 12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Applicant's Admitted Prior Art (AAPA) in view of USPN 6,490,779 to Tokizawa et al in view of USPN 3,584,809 to Ogden, Sr. as applied to claim 1 above, and further in view of USPN 4,681,656 to Byrum.

Byrum describes (column 11, lines 41+) well known laser combined with air jets and vacuum in order to control debris and the use thereof would have been obvious at the time applicant's invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art because metal debris has deleterious effects on motor components.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
